

VICE PRINCIPAL

Graduated from PSG college of technology, Coimbatore affiliated to Bharathiyar University with specialization in Electronics and communication Engineering and Post graduate form Brila Institute of Technology, Pilani with specialization in Software systems and currently pursuing Ph.D programme in Data Mining Techniques at Department of CSE, SCSVMU University, Kancheepuram.

Having around three decades of experience in Engineering college teaching and Administration. Served in different capacities as Lecturer and special officer, Professor and Dean Administration at MGR Educational and Research Institute Maduravoyal, Chennai. Served as member of several committees like the steering Committee for NBA & NAAC Accreditation.

Currently working as Vice Principal at AVIT since 18/7/2008. Keenly involved in Administration, Monitoring, Training and Placement division in addition to coordinating the statutory bodies like UGC requirements. Member of the monitoring committee and chief warden of the ladies hostel.

She has her credit more than 20 publications in Scopus indexed, International, National journals with impactor factor and in International & National Conference. She has been the Co-convener for two international and three national conference organized in the last two years.

Presented with the Best Student Award of the outgoing batch of X standard from Holy Angel's Convent during 1981. Presented the Best Teacher Award during three consecutive years at Dr. MGR Engineering College during 1994 to 1996. Meritorious Service Award for long and continuous service at Dr. MGR Educational & Research Institute during 2004