

REPORT ON ONE DAY SEMINAR

Seminar on “Clinical Research and Career Pathway” was organized on 6th September 2016 by the Department of Biotechnology. At the outset Dr. R. Devika, Professor, Department of Biotechnology welcomed the gathering. Prof. D. Vijendrababu, Vice Principal, AVIT delivered the inaugural address. He also highlighted the importance of Seminar during the course of study, followed by the introduction of the Chief Guest by Ms. P.K. Sugashini Assistant Professor, Department of Biotechnology.

Mrs. Alamelu Murali Founder, Satsang institute, Chennai elaborated the Basic concept, unique curriculum which indulges both the combination of academics and innovative skill development through internship schemes and certification programmes. She also created awareness among the young minds about the importance of Clinical research and emphasized the importance of clinical research in the career pathway, which provoked the young minds of the Biotechnologist and the Biomedical Engineers. The seminar ended with interactive queries from the staff and the student community, followed by the vote of thanks by Dr. K. Velmurugan, Head, Department of Biotechnology. A MOU was signed by the resource person Mrs. Alamelu Murali, founder of the Satsang institute and AVIT.