The AVIT Fine Arts Club Chitrayog, ACCL in association with the Student Council majestically celebrated the festival Onam on 29.08.2023 at AVIT Portico from 9.00 am. Three huge poo kolams were decorated and laid by the students in the entrance and portico respectively. The demon king Mahabali, played by a staff, graced the occasion with his presence. The King came walking from the AVIT entrance dancing, cheered by the students with Chenda Melam. The students and staff members marched towards the Poo kolam laid on the portico. King Mahabali, the staff members and students were welcomed by Dr. Jennifer G Joseph, Coordinator of the Fine Arts Club, Head of the Humanities and Science department. Dr. G. Selva Kumar, The Principal addressed the gathering and wished everyone a prosperous Onam. Followed by this, there was a lighting of Kuthuvilakku by the Principal, staff members and students. The girls and boys actively choreographed and performed dance numbers. There was also a rope pulling game arranged for the students who went on to participate actively. The Onam festivities came to a halt with the electrifying performance by the Chenda Melam troupe.
