

Anti-Drug Awareness Rally

The NSS Unit of Aarupadai Veedu Institute of Technology (AVIT), ISR CELL a constituent college of Vinayaka Missions Research Foundation's Chennai campus successfully organized a Drug Abuse Awareness Rally on August 7, 2025, at Mamallapuram. The rally was held under the leadership of the Principal, Dr. J. Janet, and commenced with a welcome address by Vice Principal, Dr. S. P. Sangeetha. The event was inaugurated by Mr. M. Arivazhagan, DSP, Mamallapuram, who flagged off the rally. The rally began at ECR Road in Mamallapuram and concluded at Arjuna's Penance, drawing attention from the public with thought-provoking slogans displayed along the route. More than 150 students actively participated in the rally, raising awareness about the dangers of drug use and advocating for a drug-free society. The messages displayed on placards and banners attracted the attention of the general public and created significant impact. The rally was meticulously organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) of AVIT, under the guidance of Dr. K. Surendra Babu, Mr. A. Imthiyas, and Public Relations Officer Mr. Padmanabhan. The management of Vinayaka Missions Research Foundation (VMRF) extended full support to the initiative. Honourable Chancellor Dr. A. S. Ganesan conveyed his appreciation and best wishes for the success of the rally, acknowledging the students' and faculty's commitment to social responsibility and community welfare.
