

CREA-25 CULTURAL FEST 2025

The Crea-25 Cultural Fest set the tone for celebration with a dazzling array of performances. The program commenced with a warm welcome by Emcee VJ IAS and Emcee Bala, followed by the formal introduction of the judge, choreographer Philips, whose vibrant energy and expert insights added spark to the event. Students lit up the stage with soulful Classical and Semi-Classical Solo Dance performances, followed by energetic Western and Folk solo numbers that showcased cultural diversity and individual talent. Group dance performances added another layer of color and choreography, drawing roaring applause from the audience. Mr. Philip, Choreographer and dancer who was specially invited for to judge the students' performance took delight to performance various dance forms and styles of dance presented by the students.

The much-awaited announcement of winners brought joy and cheer as choreographer Philips returned to the stage not only to award the best performers but also to deliver an exhilarating performance that further delighted the crowd. The excitement didn't stop there. The presence of popular playback singer Ms. Srinisha added star power to the stage. After a brief welcome, she delivered a soulful and electrifying performance that had the entire auditorium echoing with appreciation.

Adding a musical touch to the celebration was the Special Guest, Mr. Lydian Nadhaswaram, a globally celebrated young musician, whose presence added pride and prestige to the occasion.

His performance on the keyboard electrified the audience and his duo performance with Ms. Ms.Amirthavarshini - singer and a flautist; of vocal, flute and electronic piano brought classic BGMs and nostalgia to the VMCC auditorium with the crowd cheering the introduction of every new tune. Mr. Sathish Varshan- musician and music director rendered Mastro Ilayaraja's song and brought the whole crowd to a roaring standing Ovation.

Later Mr. Lydian Nadhaswaram, the musical protégé inaugurated the music club of AVIT, a part of the Fine Arts Club of AVIT. The club has been established with the intention to fine tune identified talents a and establish a VMCC band that represents the campus and the university at the state and the national level.

The grand finale of Crea-25 was the prize distribution ceremony, which celebrated the talents and creativity of students who had excelled in various cultural competitions. With smiling faces, dancing feet, and proud hearts, the event came to a close on a high note, reinforcing the spirit of unity, creativity, and youthful expression.

Together, the Annual Day and Crea-25 formed a spectacular celebration of intellect and imagination, academic brilliance and artistic vibrancy. The dual events reflected the true spirit of AVIT — a place where knowledge meets creativity, and every student is encouraged to shine.

