AVIT – ENVIRONMENTAL STUDENTS CLUB

REPORT ON GREEN AUDIT DAY 2025

AVIT - Environmental Students Club celebrated the “Green Audit day” on 17th February 2025. The Environmental Students Club of AVIT organized a seminar on ‘Implementing Green Audit: Challenges and Best Practices’. The session was conducted by the resource person Mr. J. Senthil, Associate Professor of Mechanical Engineering, AVIT. The speaker explained the critical aspects of implementing green audits, focusing on challenges and best practices. The speaker began by providing a comprehensive overview of green audits, defining their purpose, scope, and significance in promoting environmental sustainability and emphasized the importance of green audits in identifying areas for improvement in resource consumption and waste management. He addressed the various challenges faced during the implementation of green audits, including data collection and analysis difficulties, lack of awareness and engagement among stakeholders, financial constraints, resistance to change, the difficulty in correctly measuring the impact of changes. He also shared practical strategies and best practices for conducting successful green audits, including: establishing clear objectives and scope, forming a dedicated audit team, utilizing standardized methodologies and tools, engaging all stakeholders in the process, implementing continuous monitoring and evaluation, utilizing technology to improve accuracy. The seminar concluded with an interactive question and answer session, where students actively participated by asking questions and seeking clarifications. He effectively addressed their queries, fostering a deeper understanding of the subject matter. More than 120 students from all the departments participated in the event, which was coordinated by Dr. R. Nagalakshmi, Associate Professor, Department of Humanities and Science. Finally, the event concluded with a formal "Vote of Thanks" delivered by the Event Coordinator, Dr. R. Nagalakshmi, Associate Professor, Department of Humanities and Science. The successful completion of the event was made possible with the support and guidance of Dr. Jennifer G Joseph, Professor & Head of the Department - H & S, Dr. S.P. Sangeetha, Vice Principal (Academics); and Dr. G. Selvakumar, Principal.
