The Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering in association with Institution of Engineers (India) organized an Essay competition for World Habitat Day 2020. The chosen topic was “ Engineers for a self-reliant India”. The event was held on 09/10/2020. This was an initiative taken to encourage the students to step ahead amidst this crisis and to guide the students to enlighten about the social expectations. And this also helped the students to think about the need of the hour. The main aim of this event was to create an awareness among the students to not to depend on anyone instead to turn their focus on themselves and evolve to be independent. 39 students from EEE, Mechatronics, SAE, Civil, Bio-technology and Mechanical engineering departments actively participated in the event.

The students from SAE, Bio-tech and Mechanical secured the first, second and third place respectively.

The poster features logos for AVIT, Vinayaka Mission's Research Foundation, and various accreditation bodies.
